

Responsibility

Accept the consequences for your choices, for what you do AND don't do.

This means that you enjoy praise when things go well.

It also means that you will accept the blame when things go wrong. You don't blame your mistakes on what "everyone" else does.

Make things better.

Take charge of your life.

It is your choice, your achievement, or fault.

Be dependable.

WHAT DOES RESPONSIBILITY LOOK LIKE?

- Having materials for class including books, homework, & pencils
- Doing your best in class
- Being on task
- Working appropriately
- Being on time
- Following directions
- Participating
- Walking to lunch and to rec
- Returning cafeteria trays neatly to the proper place
- Following the school rules